

Team building activities

We can arrange for a variety of team building activities to take place on site, if you'd like to build it in to your programme. This can include:

Archery

Giant jigsaw

Blindfold teamwork

Bush survival skills

For more specialist activities, we can make arrangements for you to go offsite to our neighbouring team building company.

This can include:

Off-roading

Quadbiking

Tank paintballing

DTV Shredders

Bush survival skills

Bush survival requires serious mental strength. When you're soaked to the skin, the wind's howling and darkness descends, mental toughness is a must!

Bush survival skills at The Woodlands will include:

EMERGENCY SHELTER BUILDING

Could you create one from scratch? The instructor will supply the knowledge but it's up to you to use natural resources and team work to build a shelter that meets his high standards!

SURVIVAL FIRE LIGHTING

You're lost in the wild with one match; what do you do? Rubbing sticks together definitely won't cut it! During this team building exercise, you'll master ancient and modern fire-lighting techniques.

RATION PACKS

Each team is in charge of their own sustenance. A ration pack will be issued, the method of cooking and serving is down to you.

Half day team building: £1750* + VAT

The Woodlands. DDR: £43pp inc. VAT

*Additional charge of venue hire/catering/DDR will apply

'DIY' team activities

Book your exclusive event at The Woodlands and make use of the outdoor space around the venue. You are welcome to bring your own games, although we can always make suggestions when needed.

Lawn games

We can put you in touch with local companies who will supply traditional and modern lawn games to add some outdoor fun to your event.
